Dear Miguel,

How are you? I'm fine. Here's a letter in English. It's good practice for you and me!

I have classes in English at La Guardia Community College. I'm in a class with eight students. They're all from different countries: Japan, Brazil, Italy, Taiwan, Mexico, and Russia. Our teacher's name is Isabel. She's very nice and a very good teacher.

I live in an apartment with two American girls, Annie and Marnie Kass. They are sisters. Annie's twenty years old and a dancer. Marnie's eighteen and a student. They're very friendly, but it isn't easy to understand them. They speak very fast!

New York is very big and very exciting, but very expensive! The subway isn't hard to use and it's cheap. It's very cold now, but Central Park is beautiful in the snow. I'm very happy here.

AL WHEELER from Canada

We have long, cold winters and short, hot summers. I have a vacation home, or cottage, as we say here. It's near a lake, so in the summer I go sailing a lot and I play baseball. In the winter I often play ice hockey and go ice-skating. My favorite season is fall. I love the colors of the trees—red, gold, orange, yellow, and brown.

MARISOL GONZALEZ from Florida

People think it's always warm and sunny in Florida, but January and February are often wet and gray. I don't like winter. I usually meet friends in restaurants and clubs. Sometimes we go to a Cuban club. I love Cuban music. But then suddenly it's summer again and on weekends we go to the beach, sunbathe, and go swimming. I love summer.

TOSHI SUZUKI from Japan

I work for Pentax cameras, in the export department. I don't have a lot of free time, but I have one special hobby—taking photographs, of course! I like taking photographs of flowers, especially in the spring. Sometimes, after work, I relax in a club near my office with friends. My friend Shigeru likes singing Karaoke. I don't sing—I'm too shy!

The lady who lives on a plane

Joanne Ussery, 54, from Benoit, Mississippi, is a big favorite with her two grandsons because she lives on a jet plane. Her home is a Boeing 727, so a visit to Grandma is very special.

Joanne's front door is at the top of the plane's steps, but you don't need a ticket or a passport when you visit. There are three bedrooms, a living room, a modern kitchen, and a luxury bathroom. The bathroom is in the cockpit, with the bathtub under the windows. Next to this is Joanne's bedroom—in the first class section of the plane. Then there's the living room with four emergency exit doors, which she opens on summer evenings. On the wall there's a photo of the plane flying for Continental Airlines from Florida to the Caribbean. There are also four toilets, all with No Smoking signs.

"The plane is 27 years old and it's the best home in the world," says Joanne. "It has all the things you want in a home: a telephone, air conditioning, an oven, a washing machine, even a dishwasher. It's always very warm, even in winter, and it's very big, 42 meters long! My grandchildren love running up and down. And my friends love parties here—but there aren't any flight attendants to serve them their drinks!"

The plane cost Joanne just $2,000. "Next time," she says, "I want a Boeing 747, not a 727, because they have an upstairs and a downstairs, and I want to go upstairs to bed!"

The New Mozart

Eight-year-old Wesley Chu is a happy little boy, but he plays serious music. He is a world-famous pianist. He can also write music. Some people call him the "New Mozart." Every year he travels the world and gives concerts. Last year he was in London, Hong Kong, and Rome. "It's fun," he says.

Wesley was born in Calgary, Alberta, Canada, where he still lives with his parents and his two sisters. He goes to school five days a week and practices piano for two hours a day. Wesley could play the piano when he was only three years old. He could write music before he could write the alphabet. He wrote his first piece of music when he was five.

Wesley isn't exactly like Mozart. He doesn't just play the piano and write music. He also likes watching TV, playing video games, and playing with Legos. He says, "I want to be lots of things—an astronaut, a scientist, a cartoonist, and ... a pianist, of course!"

The New Picasso

Alexandra Nechita is 13 and she is called "The New Picasso." She paints large pictures in a cubist style and sells them for between $10,000 and $80,000.

She was born in Romania, but now she lives in Los Angeles with her family. She could paint very well when she was only four, but her parents couldn't understand her pictures. Alexandra says, "I paint how I feel, sometimes I'm happy and sometimes sad. I can't stop painting." Every day after school she does her homework, plays with her little brother, then paints for two or three hours until bedtime.

Alexandra doesn't spend her money, she saves it: "We were very poor when we were first in America. We couldn't buy many things, but now I can buy a big house for my family and we can travel the world. Last year we were in London, Paris, and Rome. It was fantastic!"

Two Famous Firsts

George Washington (1732–1799)

He was the first president of the United States. He became president in 1789, eight years after the American War of Independence.

His early life

George was born in Virginia. His family owned a big farm and had slaves. George didn't have much education. During his life he had three jobs: he was a farmer, a soldier, and a politician. He loved the life of a farmer. He grew tobacco and owned horses. He worked hard but he also liked dancing and going to the theater. In 1759 he married a widow called Martha Custis. They were happy together, but didn't have any children.

His later life

He was Commander-in-Chief of the army and fought the British in the War of Independence. When the war ended in 1783 he was happy to go back to the farm, but his country wanted him to be president. Finally, in 1789, he became president, and gave his name to the new capital city. He started the building of the White House, but he never lived in it. By 1797 he was tired of politics. He went back to his farm and died there two years later.

Nelson Mandela (1918–)

He was the first black president of South Africa. He became president in 1994.

His early life

Nelson was born in Qunu, a small village in South Africa. His father was an important man in the village, but he died when Nelson was still young. Nelson worked hard and went to a university where he studied history and languages. At the university he became interested in politics and joined the African National Congress. Nelson studied law and became a lawyer in 1952. In 1958, he married Winnie Mandela. They had two daughters.

His later life

Nelson became a leader in the African National Congress which fought against the all-white South African government. In 1962 he went to prison. He finally left prison in 1990, and in 1993 he won the Nobel Peace Prize. He became the first black president of South Africa in 1994. He retired from politics in 1999 at the age of 80 and went back to Qunu.

FOOD AROUND THE WORLD

For 99 percent of human history, people took their food from the world around them. They ate all that they could find, and then moved on. Then about 10,000 years ago, or for 1 percent of human history, people learned to farm the land and control their environment.

The kind of food we eat depends on which part of the world we live in, or which part of our country we live in. For example, in the south of China they eat a lot of rice. Noodles are more common in the north. In Japan and Taiwan, people eat a lot of fish and other seafood. But in the middle of the United States, away from the sea, people don't eat so much fish. They eat more meat and chicken.

In some European countries, and at formal dinners in North America, there are two or more courses to every meal and people eat with knives and forks.

In China there is only one course—all the food is together on the table, and they eat with chopsticks. In parts of India and the Middle East people use their fingers and bread to pick up the food.

Nowadays it is possible to transport food easily from one part of the world to another. We can eat what we like, when we like, at any time of the year. Our bananas come from Central America or Africa; our rice comes from California or Thailand; our strawberries come from Chile or Mexico. Food is very big business. But people in poor countries are still hungry, and people in rich countries eat too much.

Jen Franchek

SKY DIVER

Jen Franchek was always interested in sports. When she was eight, she wanted to play baseball for the Atlanta Braves and be a jet pilot. But when she grew up, she didn't become a baseball player or a pilot, she became a computer programmer. When she was 23, she did a parachute jump with some friends and loved it. She decided that jumping out of airplanes was much more interesting than being a computer programmer, so she quit her job and moved to the country to learn parachute jumping and skydiving. She is now a full-time teacher of skydiving. She says:

"I love skydiving because it's so beautiful up there—blue sky, green fields, white clouds. The views are fantastic. You can see forever. It's so peaceful, you can forget about everything and relax. People think skydiving is dangerous, but it's very safe. Driving to the airport is much more dangerous. People have car accidents all the time, but when did you last hear of a skydiving accident? Next summer I'm going to do a skydive with 30 other women from 3 planes. That's a record. I'm never going to retire. I'm going to jump out of planes until I'm a little old lady!"

Mitch Cleveland

RACE-CAR DRIVER

Mitch Cleveland grew up in Brooklyn, Michigan, near the Michigan International Speedway and was always interested in cars. When he was eight years old, his grandfather took him to see his first race. That's when Mitch decided that he wanted to be a race-car driver. When he got older, Mitch became a test driver for General Motors and drove their new cars around the test track. Three years ago, when he was thirty, Mitch took a class at a racing school in California. He got the best grades in his class. So Mitch quit his job at GM and decided to become a professional racer. He says:

"I think I did well because I listened to everything the teacher said. I think my job as a test driver also helped. The best moment was my first professional race. I didn't win, but I came in fourth. Racing is great. I love the excitement. There's just nothing like it. It's a dangerous sport, but I like the danger. It's also very expensive. In fact, I stopped racing a year ago because it cost too much. I don't think I'm going to race again, I'm going to teach other people to drive. I'm going to open a driving school next year."

A TRAIN JOURNEY

The people on the train were hot and tired. A tall young man sat next to three small children and their aunt. The aunt and the children talked. When the aunt spoke she always began with "Don't ...". When the children spoke they always began with "Why ... ?". The young man said nothing.

The small boy whistled loudly. "Don't do that, Cyril," said his aunt. Cyril stood up and looked out of the window at the countryside.

"Why is that man taking those sheep out of that field?" he asked.

"Perhaps he's taking them to another field where there's more grass," said the aunt.

"But there's lots of grass in that field. Why can't the sheep stay there?"

"Perhaps the grass in the other field is better."

"Why is it better?"

The young man looked annoyed.

"Oh, dear," thought the aunt, "he doesn't like children."

"Sit down quietly, Cyril. Now, listen, I'm going to tell you all a story."

The children looked bored but they listened. The story was very boring indeed. It was about a very beautiful little girl, who worked hard and behaved beautifully. Everybody loved her. One day she fell into a lake and everyone in the village ran to save her.

"Why did they save her?" asked the bigger girl.

"Because she was so good," said the aunt.

"But that's stupid," said the girl. "When people fall into lakes, it doesn't matter if they're good or bad, you run to save them."

"You're right," said the young man, speaking for the first time. "That's a ridiculous story."

"Well, perhaps you would like to tell a story," said the aunt coldly.

"OK," said the man. The children looked interested and he began.

- 5 The young man tells the story of a little girl called Bertha. Look at the pictures. What do you think happened to Bertha?

The tale of horribly good Bertha

"Once upon a time, a long time ago there was a little girl called Bertha. She was always well-behaved and worked hard at school to please her parents and her teachers. She was never late, never dirty, never rude, and she never told lies."

The children on the train began to look bored. "Was she pretty?" asked the smaller girl.

"No," said the young man. "She wasn't pretty at all. She was just horribly good. Bertha was so good that she won three gold medals. One said Never Late, one said Always Polite, and the third said Best Child in the World."

"Yuck!" said the three children.

"Anyway," said the young man, "Bertha was so good that the king invited her to his palace. So she put on her best clean white dress and she pinned her three medals to the front, and she walked through the woods to the king's palace. But in the woods there lived a big hungry wolf. He saw Bertha's lovely white dress through the trees and he heard the medals clinking together as she walked.

"Aha!" thought the wolf. "Lunch!" And he started to move quickly but quietly through the trees toward Bertha."

"Oh, no!" cried the children. "Is he going to eat Bertha?"

"Yes, of course," answered the young man. "Bertha tried to run away, but she couldn't run fast because the medals were so heavy. The wolf caught her easily and he ate everything, every bit of Bertha, except her three medals."

"That's a terrible story," said the aunt.

"No, it isn't," shouted the children. "It's the best story ever!"

"Ah," said the young man, "the train's stopping. It's my station."

7 Answer the questions.

1. What is the same and what is different in the aunt's story and the young man's story?

Polly Rosenbaum

Polly Rosenbaum is exactly 100 years old. She was born in the small town of Ollic, Iowa, but when she was five her family moved to Colorado. Polly's father was a teacher and he wanted his three daughters to have a good education, so Polly went to the University of Colorado and studied politics. She left the university when she was 22 and worked as a teacher. In 1939 she began working as a secretary for William George Rosenbaum, a politician in Arizona. They soon married. Unfortunately, after ten happy years together, William suddenly died of a stroke. He was 59. They didn't have any children. Polly decided to become a politician like her husband and she worked in government in Arizona until she retired 25 years ago. She says, "I like to keep busy. I love going for walks with my friends and I love cooking. I've always eaten well, lots of fruit."

Alice Patterson-Smythe

Alice Patterson-Smythe was born just over 100 years ago in Edinburgh, Scotland. She now lives in Norfolk, England. She drove ambulances in the First World War, and worked as a school secretary until she retired at age 65. She has been a widow for 25 years and has 3 children, 6 grandchildren, and 11 great-grandchildren. She smoked quite a lot when she was a young girl but she quit when she was 68 because she had a heart attack. Her nineties were the best years of her life because her millionaire grandson took her on his airplane to visit Tokyo, Los Angeles, and Miami. She says: "I love life. I play golf once a week and do Latin dancing, and I eat lots of fruit and vegetables. We are a long-lived family—my mother was 95 when she died."

Merle McEathron

Merle McEathron was 104 last July. She was born in Indiana but has lived in Phoenix, Arizona, for most of her life. She married for the first time when she was only 15 and she had 2 sons. Her husband left her when the boys were still young. Merle moved to Phoenix and became a cashier in a restaurant. At age 52, she married again, but her husband died of lung cancer only 2 years after they married. She went back to work in the restaurant and started going to dances. At one dance she finally met "the love of her life," Ellsworth McEathron, a retired admiral. She quit working at the age of 75 and at 80 got married again. They had ten beautiful years together before he too died. She says: "I still go to dances, and I might even meet another nice man. But I don't want to get married again. Now I'm happy just eating chocolates and watching TV."

What's in my briefcase? Well, there's a newspaper—a Japanese newspaper—and there's a dictionary—my Japanese/English dictionary. I have some pens, three I think. Also, I have a notebook for vocabulary. I write words in that every day. And of course I have my keys—my car keys and my house keys. And, oh yes, very important, there are some photos of my family—my wife and my daughter. That's all I think. I don't have any stamps or envelopes and my address book is in my hotel.

T 5.5 Homes around the world1. Manola from Lisbon

I live in the old town near the sea. It is called "the Alfama." I have a very beautiful apartment. There's just one room in my apartment, one very big room with one very big window. My bed's next to the window so I see the sea and all the lights of the city when I go to sleep. I live alone, but I have a cat and I'm near the stores and lots of friends come to visit me. I love my apartment.

2. Ray and Elsie from Toronto

Elsie Our house is pretty old—about 50 years old—and it's near the city center. We have a living room, a big kitchen, and, uh, three bedrooms, but the room we love is our family room.

Ray Yes. There's a TV and a stereo and a large comfortable sofa in there, and some big, old armchairs. We love sitting there in winter with the snow outside.

Elsie Our children aren't at home now. They both have jobs in the U.S., so most of the time it's just Ray and me.

3. Brad from Malibu

My house is fantastic. It's right next to the ocean. I have a lot of rich neighbors—some of them are famous actors. My house has ten rooms, and five are bedrooms. Almost everything in my house is white—the floors, the walls, the sofas, the carpets I also have a swimming pool, a private screening room for movies, and an exercise room. I live here alone. I'm not married at the moment. My ex-wife is French. She lives in Paris now with our three sons.

4. Alise from Samoa

I live with my family in a house near the sea. We have an open house—unmm—that is—our house doesn't have any walls. Houses in Samoa don't have walls because it's very, very hot, but we have blinds to stop the rain and sun. Our house is in the old style. We have only one room for living and sleeping, so it is both a bedroom and a living room. We have rugs and we sit and sleep on the floor.

T 7.4 Listen to Mattie.

I worked all day, from morning until night. Twelve hours in the cotton fields and I only earned $4 a day. I sure hated that job—but I loved the poems in my head. I really wanted to learn to read and write.

When I was 16 I married Hubert, and soon there were 11 children: 5 sons, then a daughter, Lily. Hubert died just before she was born. That was 65 years ago. So I looked after my family alone.

There was no time for learning, but my children, they all learned to read and write. That was important to me.

And when did I learn to read and write? I didn't learn until I was 86, and now I have 3 books of poems.

T 7.8 Steve's 1990s

What do I remember about the nineties? ...
 Ummm, well, I left home in 1993 and went to college. I studied economics—it was really interesting. I had a good time. Then after college, in 1997, I was really lucky. I got a job immediately, at Chase Manhattan Bank, a big bank in New York. Soon after that, in 1998, I met my wife, Gail. We got married in 1999 and bought a nice house together. We're very happy now.

Well, basketball is OK ... but I really love soccer. I remember that in 1994, the Soccer World Cup was in the United States. Brazil won in 1994. In 1998, the World Cup was in France. That year, Brazil lost to France.

Well, the U.S. fought in the Gulf War in 1991. Bill Clinton became president in 1992. He was president for eight years—from 1992 to 2000. I'll never forget the presidential election in 2000, because we had a lot of problems.

One thing I remember about 1997 that was really sad was when Princess Diana died. She died in a car crash in Paris. Millions of people went to London for her funeral. I remember it was on the news for days.

T 8.1 InventionsJEANS

Two Americans, Jacob Davis and Levi Strauss, made the first jeans in 1873. Davis bought cloth from Levi's shop. He told Levi that he had a special way to make strong clothing for workmen. The first jeans were blue. In 1935 jeans became fashionable for women after they saw them in Vogue magazine. In the 1970s, Calvin Klein earned $12.5 million a week from jeans.

TELEVISION

A Scotsman, John Logie Baird, transmitted the first television picture on October 25, 1925. The first thing on television was a boy who worked in the office next to Baird's workroom in London. In 1927, Baird sent pictures from London to Glasgow. In 1928 he sent pictures to New York, and also produced the first color TV pictures.

ASPIRIN

Felix Hofman, a 29-year-old chemist who worked for the German company Bayer, invented the drug aspirin in March 1899. He gave the first aspirin to his father for his arthritis. By 1950 it was the best-selling painkiller in the world, and in 1969 the Apollo astronauts took it to the moon. The Spanish philosopher José Ortega y Gasset called the 20th century "The Age of Aspirin."

Love in a bottle: Yuko and VinceY = Yuko V = Vince*Y I love the sea. I like walking on the beach.

One day, it was five years ago now, I was on the beach and I stood on something. It was a bottle, a green bottle. I could see something inside—some paper. So I broke the bottle, it was a letter but ...

V ...but you couldn't read it ...Y No, I couldn't. You see it was in English and I couldn't speak English then.V You can speak it very well now ...Y No, not really ... but anyway, I asked a friend to translate the letter for me. We couldn't believe it. A man in Alaska wanted a wife, but the letter was ten years old.V And I still wasn't married!Y But I didn't know that. Anyway for a joke, my friend and I wrote a letter and sent a photo ...V And now, I couldn't believe it. I got this letter and a photo. She was beautiful. I wrote back immediately and we wrote every week for six months ... and we spoke on the phone and ...Y ...and finally I flew to Anchorage, way up north in Alaska, and we met face to face. I was very shy but it was good, very good and now ...V ...now, we have 3 children. We have a house by the sea ...Y We're very happy. You see, we both love the sea!T 8.7 Ordinals

When I grow up, I'm going to be a ballet dancer. I love dancing. I go dancing 3 times a week. T 14.3 The life of Ryan

Yes, I've lived in a foreign country—in Japan. I lived in Osaka for a year. I enjoyed it very much. I loved the food. And, yes, I've worked for a big company. I worked for Nissan, the car company—that's why I was in Japan. That was two years ago. Then I got another job. Have I stayed in an expensive hotel? No, never—only cheap hotels for me, I'm afraid. But I have flown in a jumbo jet four or five times—but not first class. Business class, but not first!

Oh, I've never cooked a meal for a lot of people. I love food, but I don't like cooking. Sometimes I cook for my girlfriend, but she likes it better if we go out to eat! And I've never met a famous person—oh, just a minute, well not met but I've seen one ... I saw a famous politician at the airport once—who was it? I can't remember his name.

I've only seen one Shakespeare play, when I was in high school, we saw Romeo and Juliet. It was OK.

I've driven a tractor—I had a summer job on a farm when I was 17. I enjoyed that. Good news—I've never been to the hospital. I was born in a hospital, of course, but that's different. Bad news—I've never won a contest. In fact, I've never won anything! I play the lottery every week but I've never, ever won a thing!

T 14.4 A honeymoon in New York

M = Marilyn J = Judy

M We're having a great time!

J Tell me about it! What have you done so far?

M Well, we went to the top of the Empire State Building. That was the first thing we did. It's right in the center of New York! You can see the whole city from there.

J Have you seen the Statue of Liberty yet?

M Yeah, we have. We took a boat there. It was wonderful. Crowded, but wonderful. That was yesterday. This morning we're going to take a walk around Central Park, then this afternoon we're going shopping on Fifth Avenue. Tomorrow we're going to visit Greenwich Village and Chinatown.

J Wow! You're busy! And what about Rockefeller Center? Have you been there yet?

M No, not yet. It's on Fifth Avenue. We're going to go there tomorrow afternoon and go ice-skating.

J Tomorrow's your last night. What are you going to do on your last night?

M Well, we're going to see a Broadway show, but we haven't decided what to see yet.

J You're so lucky! Give my love to Rod!

M I will. Bye, Judy. See you soon!

T 14.5 "Leaving on a Jet Plane"

My bags are packed, I'm ready to go,
I'm standing here outside your door,
I hate to wake you up to say good-bye,
But the dawn is breaking,
It's early morn',
The taxi's waiting,
He's blowing his horn,
Already I'm so lonesome
I could die.

Chorus

So kiss me and smile for me,
Tell me that you'll wait for me,
Hold me like you'll never let me go,
'Cause I'm leaving on a jet plane,

American Headway is a multi-level series for adults and young adults who want to use American English both accurately and fluently. Grammar and vocabulary are taught and explained thoroughly, and all four language skills are developed systematically. American Headway combines the best of traditional methods with more recent approaches to make the learning of English stimulating, motivating, and effective.

American Headway 1 can be used by both true and false beginners. It provides a foundation in the structure of the language, gradually building students' understanding of the basic grammar, vocabulary, and functions of English.

Key features

- Integrated skills work, where all four skills are developed in context
- Universal topics selected from a wide variety of material
- In-depth treatment of grammar, with clear presentations, self-check exercises in the Grammar Spot, and detailed explanations in the Grammar Reference followed by extensive practice activities
- Systematic vocabulary syllabus, including dictionary training and work on systems such as collocation
- Pronunciation work, which is integrated at appropriate points
- Everyday English section, which practices functional language and social situations

In addition to this Student Book, there is a Teacher's Book with extra photocopiable material including tests and quizzes, a photocopiable Teacher's Resource Book, two Student Book Cassettes/CDs, a Workbook, and a Workbook Cassette/CD. The level is supplemented by American Headway Video 1.
